Forecast For Northern Ireland
Issued by Met Office Aberdeen
at 0400 on Thursday 23 Sep 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Cloud and mainly dry, brightening up later in the west.

Today:
Some early brightness. Otherwise a cloudy day, many places dry but a little drizzle possible in the far north at first. Brisk westerly winds soon moderating. Perhaps some late afternoon sunshine in the west. Maximum temperature 16 deg C (61 deg F).

Tonight:
Dry with a few cloud breaks for the evening but light rain and drizzle soon spreading in and freshening westerly winds. Minimum temperature 10 deg C (50 deg F).

Friday:
A cloudy and damp start to Friday, brightening up for a time during the day but cloud and light rain returning by evening. Maximum temperature 19 deg C (66 deg F).

Outlook for Saturday to Monday:
Some dry and bright weather over the weekend but quite windy too, winds strengthening further on Sunday with some heavy rain in the afternoon. Bright start Monday, blustery showers later.

(C) Crown Copyright 2021. Published by the Met Office.